All organizations interested in booking a tour for this exhibit should contact Ginger Shulick in the Dr. Wm. M. Scholl Center for Family and Community History at 312.255.3524, or e-mail scholl@newberry.org.

Reservations will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis. There are a limited number of openings, and not every date can be accommodated.

Minimum number required to book an exhibit tour: 15

Maximum number of people on any individual tour: 25

Groups with more than 25 people will be split into groups that will tour the exhibit consecutively; a maximum of 2 groups can be accommodated in a single visit. (For example: group 1: in gallery; group 2: library tour/coffee, then switch.) The Special Events office can arrange coffee/cocktails and/or a brief tour of the Library in conjunction with an exhibit tour. Ginger Shulick will provide contact information for the Events office at the time of tour booking.

Tours will last approximately 1 hour.

There is no fee for exhibit tours, but donations made to the Newberry Library are appreciated and are used for the exhibits programs.

This exhibit has been organized by the Newberry Library's Dr. William M. Scholl Center for Family and Community History and the Chicago Historical Society. It has been made possible with major funding provided in part by The Institute of Museum and Library Services, a federal agency that fosters innovation, leadership and a lifetime of learning. Generous support also provided by The Chicago Reader and Dr. and Mrs. Tapas K. Das Gupta.
